After 10 years of successful dance the

Bradford Dance Academy

offers 3 exciting new classes at their Manly Vale Studio

DRAMA

with

Lisa Woodward

BA (Theatre Studies / English) Grad Dip.Ed.

Through drama children improve creative thinking, confidence, communication and self-esteem. At BDA we offer a safe, positive and non-judgmental environment. Lisa's sessions include games, mime, characterisation, role play, improvisation and relaxation exercises. Classes are fun and suitable for girls and boys of all ages. Monday evenings from 4pm

SINGING

with

Taahliah Armstrong-Haas

BA (Contemporary Music - Voice)

Taahliah's classes cover preparation, correct posture, warm-up exercises, scales, resonance, breathing technique, delivery and expression. Classes are fun, suitable for all ages and you do not need previous experience. Thursday evenings from 5.30pm

CHEERLEADING

with

Carissa Walford

*Sydney Kings Cheerleader
(formerly with Parramatta Eels)
Runner up "Miss Inside Sport"*

Cheerleading classes are being offered at Manly Vale due to popular demand! Carissa's classes cater for talented dance students that have seen movies like "Bring it on" or have been to the footy and envied the tiny outfits and pom-poms! It is energetic, requires lots of teamwork and is full of fun! Previous dance experience is mandatory. Monday evenings from 7pm

And for a limited time we are offering a

FREE

"come and try" lesson of any of the above
